

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts AN INITIATIVE PETITION FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Under Article XLVIII of the Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth

SUMMARY

This proposed amendment to the state constitution would declare that corporations are not people and may be regulated. It would declare that the rights afforded to human residents under the state constitution are not applicable to corporations, limited liability companies, corporate entities, or artificial persons. It would declare that the state Legislature has the power to regulate the rights of corporations, limited liability companies, corporate entities, and artificial persons to do business in the state, in order to promote the common good and strengthen the social compact of the Commonwealth.

The proposed amendment would also declare that money is not free speech and could be regulated to protect the political process and the functioning of government to serve the best interests of the citizens of the Commonwealth. The Legislature would have the power to regulate the raising and spending of money and in-kind equivalents for any primary or election of a public official and for ballot measures. This would include regulation of any advertising for or against any candidate in a primary or election for public office and any ballot measure.

The proposed amendment declares that it could not be applied to restrict the freedom of the press.
